

University Centre Colchester (UCC)

Staff Profile

Name:	Linda Goldie
Job title/role:	Programme Leader, BA (Hons) Health and Social Care
Subjects taught/administrative responsibilities:	Linda teaches the following modules: Advocacy; Supervision – models, process and practice; Effective Communication; Work Based Learning, Undergraduate Dissertation
Qualifications and Membership of Professional bodies:	Dip in Social Work, CQSW – Moray House, Edinburgh PGCE, University of Huddersfield MA (Soc.) Gender, Culture and Society, University of Essex
Experience in Education:	All of Linda's varied teaching career has been at Colchester Institute, firstly teaching on the Preliminary Certificate in Social Care to 16-18 year olds, then moving into Higher Education with the Supported Open Learning Foundation Degrees in Health and Social Care to her present programmes namely the BA(Hons) Health and Social Care.
Biography and personal interests:	Prior to working in Education at Colchester Institute she worked as a social worker in child protection and psychiatric services for children in Scotland, then Southern Ireland and finally in London. Her main subject interest is child and family work. Linda's MA dissertation focussed on domestic violence – the impact on the physical and mental health of women.