

University Centre Colchester (UCC)

Staff Profile

Name:	Daniel Collier
Job title/role:	Lecturer – BA Computer Games with 3D Modelling and Animation
Subjects taught/administrative responsibilities:	Unity Programming Professional Practice in the games industry WordPress
Qualifications and Membership of Professional bodies:	Nottingham Uni, BSc Artificial Intelligence & Psychology (2.1) Made in Creative UK
Biography and personal interests:	Dan is a veteran video games coder and producer. He has been in the games industry for 15 years. He has worked on a number of titles - including Fifa, Madden and Need for Speed on DS. He was lead on Sims 3 for DS - the game was nominated for a BAFTA. In 2013 he co-founded Tundra Games - creating mobile and PC games. Their title Rapture - World Conquest has been downloaded over 2 million times.
Professional practice / research interests:	Rapture - World Conquest for iOS, Android, PC and Mac - goo.gl/SnCGgW The Sims 3 DS – BAFTA nominated - https://uk.ign.com/articles/2010/11/06/the-sims-3-review Skate IT DS - https://www.metacritic.com/game/ds/skate-it
Link to personal (professional) website:	www.tundragames.com
Publications/consultancy/knowledge transfer:	https://www.gamasutra.com/blogs/author/DanielCollier/999095/ - number of blogs about the development of Rapture
Current projects:	Lost Words – PS4 and XboxOne Port New unannounced Tundra title