Biography and personal interests: (50-75 words) NB: As part of your profile page, UCC may wish to record a short video interview with you for inclusion on the website.	Initially qualifying and experience with counselling adults, her practice evolved and with further CPD and expanded to working with young people. Her specific area of interest and experience is working with individuals in care and those affected by adoption. The person-centred approach to counselling continues to inform all areas of practice. When not working, Lindsay's interests include theatre, cinema, a good book and running.
Professional practice / research interests: NB: If you wish to do so, please submit separately up to three examples of your work, which you would be happy to see published on your UCC staff webpage. This may include past conference papers, links to publications (if not included in this section), filmed/recorded performances, or visual images.	In addition to her lecturing at UCC, Lindsay continues to work in private practice, believing that doing so enables her to retain an up-to-date understanding of developments in her profession. Current area of interest has been to undertake a Certificate in Supervision.
