

University Centre Colchester (UCC)

Staff Profile

The content below, and the accompanying profile image, will be used for the purpose of documenting your work at UCC, as well as promoting UCC's academic provision. This includes, but is not limited to, print (such as leaflets and prospectuses) and digital fora (such as on the College's website), as well as by external organisations authorised by UCC.

The College will retain and use the information and image(s) for the purpose(s) outlined above for the period you are an employee of Colchester Institute.

Name:	Myrtle Munro
Job title/role:	Lecturer in Health and Social Care
Subjects taught/administrative responsibilities:	Myrtle teaches the following modules: The social and political context of Health and Social Care; Safeguarding and Risk; Ethics and Values; Law and Ethics; Mental Health; Domestic Collaboration; Change; Advocacy Literature review supervision She is also a personal tutor to undergraduate students.
Qualifications and Membership of Professional bodies: (At degree level: subject and level only; no dates required).	M.A. Modern Languages, University of Aberdeen PG. Dip Social Work, University of Edinburgh
Experience in Education: (where you studied/ have taught/ have worked)	Myrtle studied French and German at the University of Aberdeen and spent a year during this period teaching English in a secondary school and an adult education setting. After gaining experience working in residential child care she completed my social work qualification at the University of Edinburgh. After working in a range of adult social work settings in England and Hong Kong, she worked as programme lead for the Approved Social Worker Programme in Essex. For a number of years, she worked independently as a trainer and in consultancy, specialising in mental health and social care. Myrtle has taught at Anglia Ruskin University before joining University Centre Colchester.
Biography and personal interests: (50-75 words) NB: As part of your profile page, UCC may wish to record a short video interview with you for inclusion on the website.	Whilst not working she enjoys being in the countryside, walking and bird watching. She particularly likes to return to her native Scotland and soak up the atmosphere in the hills and glens of the Highlands, or listening to the poetry and songs. At home, she loves her garden and gets great pleasure out of cooking and entertaining.
Professional practice / research interests: NB: If you wish to do so, please submit separately up to three examples of your work, which you would be happy to see published on your UCC staff webpage. This may include past conference papers, links to publications (if not included in this section), filmed/recorded performances, or visual images.	Over the years she has followed up her interest in Educational Transactional Analysis. During her time as a consultant, she gave a number of conference presentations to educators on mental health related issues. She is currently interested in evaluating data on domestic abuse, as well as service user involvement in co-production.

Link to personal (professional)
website:
(where applicable)

Publications/consultancy/knowledge transfer:
(where applicable)

Current projects: (where applicable)

Information controller: Ashley McMullin, Ashley.mcmullin@colchester.ac.uk