

University Centre Colchester (UCC)

Staff Profile

Name:	Dr Catherine Duxbury
Job title/role:	Lecturer Health and Education
Subjects taught/administrative responsibilities:	Catherine teaches a range of modules across the following BA (Hons) programmes: Health and Social Care, Early Years, Education
Qualifications and Membership of Professional bodies:	BSc (Hons) Psychology, University of Huddersfield MA Sociology, University of Essex PhD Sociology, University of Essex PGCE (PCET), University of East London QTLS Awards: Don Pike Award, Department of Sociology, University of Essex (2012) She is an Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (AFHEA).
Experience in Education:	Catherine joined Colchester Institute in 2009, initially teaching Health and Social Care subjects in Further Education. She also has experience working as a graduate teaching assistant for the Department of Sociology and the Department of Philosophy and Art History at the University of Essex. She has worked as a lecturer at University Centre Colchester since 2011.
Biography and personal interests:	Catherine interests include animals (of which she has quite a few), veganism, politics and feminism.
Professional practice / research interests:	Catherine's research interests are closely linked to her doctoral studies and her wider view of the world: veganism, vegan feminism/ecofeminism, environmentalism, anarchist studies, intersectional justice, critical pedagogy/democratic education
Link to personal (professional) website:	https://essex.academia.edu/CatherineDuxbury