

University Centre Colchester (UCC)

Staff Profile

Name:	Marwan Mahassen
Job title/role:	Workshop Supervisor for IT Systems and Cisco Networking Lecturer in HE Information Technology
Subjects taught/administrative responsibilities:	Marwan supports degree students in IT classes and manages the Local Area Network, renews software, upgrades hardware and software in computer networks. He also delivers some lectures in IT.
Qualifications and Membership of Professional bodies:	BSc Computer Networks, Sheffield Hallam University MSc Network Professional, Sheffield Hallam University
Experience in Education:	Marwan teaches the System Support module and practical tasks in workshops.
Biography and personal interests:	His main professional interests lie in computer networks and new technologies, and he spends much of his spare time keeping in touch with current developments in the latest technologies and applications. Marwen likes to dedicate time to his family, travelling around the country and abroad, and sharing common interests, such as swimming, bowling and walking in rural areas.
Professional practice / research interests:	His research interest is the continuation of a project started for his MSc. It is concerned with Multi-Protocol Label Switching (MPLS) and its impact on network performance.