

Getting Ready to Study Professional and Popular Music at College

The 'Getting Ready' list below gives you resources and activities you can use to get ready for when your course starts at Colchester Institute in September. We have picked mostly resources and activities you can access on-line and we have some suggestions too of other resources in the 'Going Further' section.

Getting Ready to study Professional and Popular Music at Colchester Institute

Explore and get familiar with: <https://www.npr.org/music>

Video essays, lessons and vlogs on new horizons in music and music theory. NYC-based bass player and composer Adam Neely brings you a new video every Monday:

Adam Neely - YouTube

<https://www.youtube.com/user/havic5>

Something to do:

Practise pieces and songs, etc. so that you are able to play confidently.

Make a log of everything that you would be happy to perform in front of people and then add to that list as they learn more during lockdown.

Have a catalogue of pieces that you can perform confidently ready for the start of term.

Going Further to study Professional and Popular Music at Colchester Institute

Pick a course in your subject area that interests you at:

<https://www.coursera.org/>

<https://www.futurelearn.com/>

You can find information for new students at:

<https://www.colchester.ac.uk/further-education/applying-full-time-courses/>