"BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF EAST ANGLIA I CONFER ON THESE CANDIDATES, AND THOSE IN ABSENTIA, THE AWARD FOR WHICH THEY HAVE QUALIFIED."

- 12. Kevin Prince will introduce George Kieffer. Kevin Prince will deliver a short speech and then invite George Kieffer to present the awards. George Kieffer will move in front of the left lectern (left for those seated on stage) to begin the presentation of certificates to Graduands and to shake each Graduand's hand.
 - 13. Kevin Prince will introduce Mark Cherry, who will move from his seat to the right lectern (right for those seated on stage) to start the presentation of the awards for the School of Applied Technologies. Mark Cherry will then call the relevant Course Leader, who will proceed to the bottom of the downward flight of stairs on the left side of the stage (left for those seated on stage) to greet the graduates as they exit from the stage.
 - 14. As each name is announced by Mark Cherry (and the subsequent name readers) the graduand will process singularly across the stage (from the right to the left (right to left for those seated on stage)) to George Kieffer to receive their certificate. George Kieffer and the graduand will then turn to face the photographer located on stage for one photograph. The student will then exit the stage via the stairs to the left (left for those seated on stage) to be greeted by their Course Leader, before making their way to the back of the Moot Hall to be directed back to their seat.
 - 15. Upon the completion of the awards for the School of Applied Technologies Mark Cherry will invite Sally Chamberlain to the right lectern (right for those seated on stage) to start the presentation of awards for the Area of TESOL.
 - 16. Upon the completion of the awards for the Area of TESOL Sally Chamberlain will invite Carmel Asbury to the right lectern (right for those seated on stage) to start the presentation of awards for the Area of Accounting.
 - 17. Upon the completion of the awards for the Area of Accounting Carmel Asbury will invite Tristan Clifton to the right lectern (right for those seated on stage) to start the presentation of awards for the Area of Creative and Digital Media.
 - 18. On conclusion of the presentation of certificates Tristan Clifton will return to his seat and Kevin Prince will invite George Kieffer to say a few words from the left lectern (left for those seated on stage).
 - 19. Kevin Prince will introduce Alison Andreas who will deliver her speech from the left lectern (left for those seated on stage).
 - 20. Kevin Prince will bring the ceremony to a close by asking graduates to remain in their gowns and make their way to The Minorities Art Gallery for a celebratory reception, once the Academic Procession have left the Moot Hall.
 - 21. Kevin Prince will close by inviting all to stand whilst the Academic Procession exits led by Neil Barnes, followed by David Briggs and the front row on stage, followed by the back row on the stage.

POST-CEREMONY

Please make your way to The Minorities Art Gallery to join the post-ceremony reception. Please keep hold of your ticket for entry to the venue. Your token can be exchanged for a welcome drink.

Lunch will be served at approximately 12:30pm. A member of staff will direct you to the lunch.

NON-ATTENDING GRADUANDS

In the event that a student has not arrived for their ceremony, a '?' will appear on the presenting list next to the students' name.

When the name reader reaches the student with a question mark next to their name please look to Ed. If the student has arrived he will nod his head and send the student on to stage.

If the student has not arrived he will shake his head and their name should not be read out. If more than one student has failed to attend, Ed will shake his head and use a finger-gesture to indicate the number of missing students.

GOWN RETURN

Please ensure that all robes are returned to Ede & Ravenscroft at the Council Chamber at Colchester Town Hall or at The Minorities.

Please note: The Town Hall closes at 8pm.
